

PERU

Day: 1

Location: Lima

Description: Arrival in Lima. A transfer to the chosen accommodation is going to be organized - hotels stay and check-in. Free afternoon to start enjoying the city. Overnight stay.

Day: 2

Location: Lima

Description: Breakfast in your hotel. This day we are going to visit the historic center of Lima. We'll see Praça de Armas and appreciate its attractions. Then we will walk to Lima Cathedral in Praça Maior, the most important Church in Peru. We will also visit Casa Aliaga, a 480-year-old mansion located in the heart of El Centro, the capital city's historic district. Casa de Aliaga's story started when Spanish conquistador Don Francisco Pizarro established Lima as Peru's capital city on Jan. 18, 1535. Because friends make the best neighbors, Pizarro gave the piece of land adjacent to the Plaza de Armas to his ally Jeronimo De Aliaga. The tour ends in Parque do Amor, where you'll have a wonderful view of the Pacific Ocean! Return to the hotel. Overnight stay.

Day: 3

Location: Lima / Cusco

Description: Breakfast in your hotel, then transfer to the airport to take your flight to Cusco. Arrival and transfer to the chosen hotel. In the afternoon we'll visit the Qurikancha, originally named Inti Kancha (Quechua inti sun) or Inti Wasi (Quechua for "sun house"), the most important temple in the Inca Empire dedicated to Inti, the Sun God. It was one of the most revered temples of the capital city of Cusco. Then we'll continue the visit to the Cathedral, in Praça de Armas, the Saksaywaman, a fortified citadel on the northern outskirts of the city, the archeological site of Quenqo and the military ruins of Puka Pukara. Return to the hotel and Overnight stay.

Day: 4

Location: Cusco / Maras / Moray / Cusco

Description: Breakfast in your hotel, then you'll visit the archeological sites of Maras and Moray. Maras is well known for its nearby salt evaporation ponds, in use since Inca times. The salt-evaporation ponds are up-slope. Moray is an archaeological site approximately 50 km (31 mi) northwest of Cusco, on a high plateau at about 3,500 m (11,500 ft) and just west of the village of Maras. The site contains unusual Inca ruins, mostly consisting of several enormous terraced circular depressions, the largest of which is approximately 30 m (98 ft) deep. Return to the hotel and Overnight stay.

Day: 5

Location: Cusco / Machu Pichu / Cusco

Description: Breakfast in your hotel, then transfer by train to Machu Picchu or Aguas Calientes. It is the closest access point to the historical site of Machu Pichu, which is 6 kilometres (3.7 mi) away or about a 1.5 hours walk. There are many hotels and restaurants for tourists, as well as natural hot baths which gave the town its colloquial Spanish name. The baths were destroyed by floods several years ago, but have been rebuilt. Meal at Inkaterra café. In the late afternoon, return to Cusco.

Overnight stay.

Day: 6

Location: Cusco / Lima / Transfer out

Description: Breakfast in your hotel, then transfer to the hotel for your flight back home!